

EYFS Me and My Family - Autumn 1

Prime areas

Personal and social development

- Settling in to new routines
- Making friends and being a good friend

Communication and Language

- Listening to stories and retelling stories
- Show and Tell sessions linked to topic

Physical Development

- Gaining independence in personal hygiene and self-care
- Becoming more confident in their spatial awareness and ability to travel safely inside and outside
- Developing pencil control and strengthening fine motor skills

Specific areas

Literacy

- Recognising their names and names of family members
- Practising new handwriting style
- Daily phonics sessions

Maths

- Counting how many people are in their family
- Ordering by size
- Number recognition and formation

Understanding the world

- Learning about families and family traditions and customs
- Different people have different families
- Looking at how people change as they grow

Creative development

- Self portraits
- Role play in home corner - acting out familiar situations.